

SEAL SURVEY

DATE: 2/16/19

START TIME/ END TIME: 10:00

LOCATION: Sandy Hook

AIR TEMPERATURE: low 40s 14 mph

WEATHER (cloudy, sunny, etc.): Sunny, windy North wind west

TIDE: low

LEAD OBSERVER: Jrc Reynolds

SPECIES OBSERVED:

Harbor

# OF DARK-Colored Seal:

N

# OF LIGHT-Colored Seal:

N 33 really light female
S 4 "

# OF IMMAUTURE:

2 swimming

# OF SHARK BITES

none observed

OTHER INJURIES (please explain):

none observed.

TOTAL # SEALS

162 = 161 Harbor Seals + 1 Grey Seal

HUMAN DISTURBANCES

2 people across from diurnal observing seals
2 people with dogs - one barking

COMMENTS:

107 north group 10:50 2 people
21 south spit
2 swimming

1st count
137 total 10:40

16+ seals swimming
southern edge of spit
(juveniles?)
20+ emerged on
spit end 10:45

~~South~~
North group went into water suddenly 11:00
3 remained on land

11:00 33 people including our group

Ed's count
137 north spit
58 were smaller
25 south spit
small

SEAL SURVEY

DATE: 2/16/2019

START TIME/ END TIME: 11:30

LOCATION: Four Hancock Sandy Hook

AIR TEMPERATURE: 41

WEATHER (cloudy, sunny, etc.): Sunny, clear north wind

TIDE: low

LEAD OBSERVER: Joe Reynolds

SPECIES OBSERVED:

1 in water, approached jetty, emerged for
a second - returned to water

OF DARK-Colored Seal:

OF LIGHT-Colored Seal:

OF IMMAUTURE:

OF SHARK BITES

OTHER INJURIES (please explain):

TOTAL # SEALS

1 Harbor Seal = Swimming

HUMAN DISTURBANCES

COMMENTS:

Several brandt, merganser